Note

Agricultural assets mean, agricultural land, growing crops and trees, livestock, outhouse, store house and dwelling house in the vicinity of agricultural land and agricultural tools and implements. The following agricultural assets are however, exempt from levy of wealth tax :-

- a) growing crops , grass or standing trees on agricultural land;
 - b) agricultural land received by an assessee from government in pursuance of any gallantry or merit award instituted or approved by the Federal Government;
 - c) agricultural land upto the value of one million rupees calculated @ Rs. 200/- per Production Index Unit (i.e. 5,000 P.I.U's) ;
 - d) tools and implements including tractors, tubewells and other farm machinery used for raising agricultural produce ;
 - e) one pick-up used for agricultural purposes and one other motor vehicle owned by the owner of agricultural assets. Other vehicles owned by the individual whether or not used for agricultural purposes, would be included in non-agricultural assets. In case the total value of non-agricultural assets exceeds Rs. 1,000,000 a separate return of wealth tax Form 'A' is required to be filed with the Deputy Commissioner of Wealth Tax.
 - f) all farm animals and livestock used for agricultural purposes owned by agriculturist except those used for any commercial purpose;
 - g) an out-house, store-house, farm-house, dwelling house in the vicinity of agricultural land.
2. The above exempt assets, except the pick-up and one other motor vehicle claimed to be exempt, are not required to be declared in this return.
 3. This return is to be filed by 31st August every year, with the Tehsildar or Mukhtiar at the Tehsil/Taluka where the maximum area of a taxpayer's land is located. However, if the taxpayer is an income tax assessee, he may if he so desires, file this return along with his income tax return with the concerned Deputy Commissioner of Income Tax.
 4. If a person and his minor children do not own land aggregating more than 5,000 Production Index Units, he is not required to file this return.
